CASE STUDY

CHALLENGE ONE

Managing multiple accreditation programs created a significant administrative workload.

OUTCOME

More efficient accreditation management

A paperless system reduced manual work while making accreditation documents easier to manage and access.

CHALLENGE TWO

Printed policies and documentation added time, costs and complexity to accreditation-related work.

OUTCOME

Lower paper costs with less paperwork

Moving policies online saved thousands in paper costs while eliminating paper policy acknowledgments.

> We liked the time savings it provided all our staff when communicating about important policies, procedures, training and personnel orders."
